

BUSINESS OF HOME

by EDITOR AT LARGE

NEWS DIGEST | JUN 25, 2019 |

Surface Media buys W Magazine, ASID starts advocacy fund, Bobby Berk sings and more

By Robyn Smith

---

It's Tuesday, the best day of the week—at least, for the BOH news desk. In our weekly digest, find a roundup of need-to-know (and nice-to-know) news.

---

Dmitriy & Co. has partnered with Uprise Art, which finds original artwork by new artists for residential and office spaces, to choose works that complement its newest collection. New pieces by Brooklyn mixed-media artist Senem Oezdogan and Canadian graphic artist and painter Scott Sueme will be on view.

---

Indian textile brand Marigold Living created a line exclusively for retailer Moda Operandi that becomes available this week. The Botanical Collection marks the first time Marigold has collaborated with another brand; it is also the first time the brand has used color-discharge printing, a historic block-printing technique that involves bright colors and embellishment.

---

The English furniture and design brand Oka is debuting in the U.S. Right now, it is just available to U.S. patrons online and via a quarterly magazine launching in the fall; soon, Oka plans on putting down roots with a physical space.