ED By RIMA SUQI APR 26, 2022

While the calendar may dictate that Mother's Day falls on May 8 this year, we do happen to agree with the legions who believe that mothers should be celebrated every day. But still, hats off to whoever came up with the idea of having a dedicated 24 hours where Mom is number 1, commercialized holiday or not. So read on for a slew of stylish suggestions of what to get for Mom, some culled from an informal poll of moms in our orbit, with an eye to women-owned or -helmed businesses and/or products designed by women.
