

MODA OPERANDI IS SELLING THE MOST GORGEOUS BLOCK-PRINT PILLOWS, JUST IN TIME FOR SUMMER

You won't need a passport for these wanderlust-worthy throw pillows by Marigold Living.

BY LAUREL BENEDUM JUN 27, 2019

Marigold Living may have launched just over a year ago, but the techniques behind its exquisite hand-crafted Indian designs are age-old. The result: An assortment of bright silk and cotton textiles splashed with heritage prints that's unlike any other. Naturally, the labor of love immediately caught the eye of Lauren Santo Domingo, co-founder of the online fashion and home retailer Moda Operandi. And when that arbiter of all things en-vogue inevitably approached the brand for its first-ever collaboration, they cheerfully obliged. It's the marriage of two companies both dedicated to impeccable design, so the match made perfect sense.

Now Marigold has officially joined the ranks of Moda's star brands, and we couldn't be more excited to shop its newly launched Botanical Collection of throw pillows. Each one is fashioned from Tussar silk that's been dipped into the richest indigo dye and then adorned with hand-embroidered flowers by a team of artisans in India. For the print-obsessed, these beautiful, lovingly crafted pillows are a no-brainer—switch out your old throw pillows now for a perfect summer-entertaining tableau.
