

50 Small Home Stores Around the Country to Support Right Now

Yes, you can still shop them online!

HB BY BRITTNEY MORGAN, CARISHA SWANSON AND KELLY ALLEN MAR 24, 2020

For those seeking a useful way to spend their time during social distancing—or anyone simply interested in forging a deeper connection with their homes—HB has launched Home Love, a series of daily tips and ideas to make every minute indoors more productive (and gratifying!).

Find yourself scrutinizing every nook and cranny of your home these days, thinking it might be about time to do a little sprucing? Rather than Googling "table lamp," shop our guide of 50 locally-owned home stores. These small businesses each offer a truly unique selection of pieces—this is where you should go for those one-of-a-kind finds that give your home a distinct personality. And with many taking a serious hit under stay-at-home directives, they need our support more than ever. Some are offering sales, others deliveries (even when they never have before!), and all of them have finds that aren't available at big box, online retailers.

It's time to discover (or rediscover, you savvy local shopper you) the best of the country's independent design stores. Even if these aren't in your backyard, they're worth knowing about! Some of their shopfronts might have temporarily closed, but you shop them all online without budging from your newly assembled WFH home office. Just note: Due to closures of non-essential businesses around the country, many of these stores are experiencing shipping delays, but you can still shop in the meantime—just be patient and check their websites for details and updates.

22

Marigold Living

Blending classic and contemporary styles, Marigold Living offers pieces with embroidery so beautiful, visitors will need to know where you got them. Artisan pillows, curtains, makeup bags—just pick your favorite textile and consider it an instant style upgrade. The brand will also be holding a 15 percent off sale from Mar. 26 through Apr. 9.

SHOP NOW