

NOW IN PALM BEACH

trends

Peridot Alpine pillowcase, $50, indiaamory.com

Emilia textile pillow, $175, by Peter Dunham Textiles at John Rosselli & Associates, DCOTA, Dania Beach, johnrosselli.com; peterdunhamtextiles.com

Handblocked napkins, two for $26, marigoldliving.com

The Spoonbill chair, from $4,000, soane.com

BLOCK PARTY

Originally developed in Rajasthan during the 12th century, block-print textiles are forever classic. But, lately, American designers have a newfound level of affinity for exotic cottons made with the medieval printing method. While John Robshaw, Peter Dunham, Lisa Fine and Roberta Roller Rabbit are now synonymous with their block-print textiles, new labels such as India Amory, Marigold Living, Lee Ann Thornton and Amanda Lindroth are making a fresh mark.

By Sarah Bray

Floral linens, from $120, Amanda Lindroth, amandalindroth.com

Alderley lampshade, $250, by Bunny Williams Home at McCann Design Group, West Palm Beach, mccandesigngroup.com; bunnywilliamshome.com

PHOTOS COURTESY OF BRANDS

A room designed by Mark D. Sikes wrapped in textiles by Hudson, N.Y.-based brand Les Indiennes.

