

Mark D. Sikes FOR HUDSON

VALLEY Design master Mark D. Sikes embraces timeless style and thoughtful detail in his aptly named Classics collection for Hudson Valley Lighting. Round details and perforated openings that cast beautiful light are hallmarks of the line of chandeliers, pendants, and sconces, all merging traditional style with modern sensibilities. (hudsonvalleylighting.com)

Marigold Living

Every stitch on these pillows represents years of knowledge. Each flower and branch is a study in human artistry. Marigold Living strives to protect the ancient art of Indian handicraft with a collection of silk pillow covers demonstrating the beauty of Gara embroidery, a style of stitching—or “painting in threads”—developed by people of the Parsi community. (marigoldliving.com)

Castel

Get the glamour of Audrey Hepburn and Ava Gardner combined with the drama of Elizabeth Taylor and Marilyn Monroe in Güell Lamadrid's Golden Age fabrics for Castel. Available exclusively through Castel's New York showroom, the collection gets its name from starlets who once ruled the silver screen. (castelmaison.com)

Kim Scodro

Color us infatuated! Kim Scodro's new collection of upholstery for Pearson puts the Chicago-based designer's signature colors—soft, feminine, and sophisticated—on 19 shapely furniture pieces, including sofas, chairs, bar stools, ottomans, and even a skirted end table. The couture fabrics are all bench-made in Pearson's Hickory, North Carolina, workshop. (pearsonco.com)

WRITTEN AND PRODUCED BY ANNA LOGAN