Finding a beautiful home gift for someone who has great taste can be tough. After all, what do you buy the person who has an eye for design and seemingly has everything? If you're currently facing this gift-giving dilemma, we have good news: You don't need to resort to an impersonal gift card or pick up another basic bottle of wine this year. Our editors have rounded up the best home gifts for 2022, so you can buy your loved one something that's truly unique and is beautiful enough to display in their house. From global-inspired finds and monogrammed towels to a cozy blanket and objets d' art, there's something for every price range and style aesthetic in this guide. Here, our editors' 16 favorite luxury home gifts to give the design lover in your life.

Hana Runner - Red/Teal

$60 AT
MARIGOLDLIVING.COM

This block-print table runner featuring an Indian flower motif is a stunning gift that can be used all year long. The brand also has beautiful napkins that are perfect for mixing and matching (these red lotus-print ones and these blue paisley ones would be perfect with it).
